

West Midlands Central Foundation School

Individual Placement Description – George Eliot Hospital

Placement	FY1 Anaesthetics
The department	Anaesthetic Department, George Eliot Hospital
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundation teaching programme - One hour weekly • Critical care – 2 months; Theatres (Elective and emergency) – 2 months • Informal bedside teaching from Consultants, •
Where the placement is based	George Eliot Hospital Foundation Trust
Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Meera Bryant, Dr S Chaudhari
Main duties and learning objectives of the placement	Theatres Perioperative care of the patients under supervision Preoperative assessment of patients undergoing elective and emergency surgery. Provide anaesthesia for Elective and emergency surgical patients under close supervision. Post-operative analgesic management. Skills – management of airway (mask, LMA, ETT) under supervision, Peripheral venous cannulation Critical care – Daily ward rounds (twice) Assessment and management of critically ill patients in ITU under close supervision Documentation, Requesting Investigations Communication with family Team working
Typical working pattern in this placement	8:00 to 16:00 Theatre posting – 2 months ITU posting – 2months
Employer information	George Eliot Hospital has been an NHS Trust Hospital since 1994. The majority of the Hospital is based in modern purpose built accommodation. Currently there are 350 beds divided between the major specialities. The Postgraduate Medical Centre with excellent library facilities, a clinical skills training unit and a computer skills training centre. There is a very strong commitment to junior staff training

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.

April 2020